MILITARY HOUSING

▶ Ambac insures $6.0 billion of privatized military housing debt

- Diverse exposure to 58 US military bases across 15 states
- One credit is adversely classified
- Exposures are long-dated, with most maturing after 2040

▶ Debt service is not directly paid or guaranteed by the U.S. Government

- Serviced primarily from rental payments via US Government funding of individual's Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH)
- BAH flows directly into transaction accounts, not through the individuals
- Primary security is the assignment of BAH payments

▶ Risk factors affecting these transactions include

- Large scale domestic military cutbacks
- Base essentiality and risk of base closures
- Military deployments
- U.S. government commitment to fund BAH
